

Episode-8

Now Live

Hope is the trust in the fairness and fulfillment of our desires. Hope is the fuel that drives us to go out and get the thing we desire. But the moment we pin our hope on others, it transpires into expectation, a furtive demand. If not met, it stifles and chokes all our energy channels and perches as resentment.

Can we persuade ourselves to not give in to our inherent tendencies? Can we draw the line between wish and want?
